Cuisine Cuisine (Beijing) Lands Prestigious Awards Within Six Months of Opening

Miramar Group is committed to delivering both exquisite cuisine and exceptional service and has won numerous awards for doing so. We are once again proud to announce that Cuisine Cuisine (Beijing) has been recognised by the Chinese media within six months of opening. Modern Weekly awarded Cuisine Cuisine (Beijing) as the Best Chaozhou / Cantonese Restaurant of 2011 while Hurun Report has given the distinction as one of the Best New Arrivals in 2012.

Having been in wide circulation for more than 30 years, Modern Weekly is hailed as one of China's most elite magazines of the new era. Every year, Modern Weekly's professional panel of judges selects the most outstanding brands under rigorous criteria for recognition. Cuisine Cuisine (Beijing) was awarded Best Chaozhou / Cantonese Restaurant of 2011, which shows that excellent food and service is appreciated by guests and recognised by acclaimed professionals.

Established in 1999, Hurun Report is one of China's leading luxury goods magazines. Readers are amongst the most affluent in China and include those who are listed in Hurun Report's very own China Rich List. For eight years, Hurun Report has been publishing the Best of the Best Awards, an annual summary of the brand and lifestyle preferences of China's wealthiest individuals. Cuisine Cuisine (Beijing) was listed as one of the 2012 Best New Arrivals, a confirmation that the restaurant has become a new favourite amongst China's elite.

Following the Beijing store opening, Cuisine Cuisine (Wuhan) is scheduled to open in the first quarter of 2012, bringing authentic Cantonese fare to a second Mainland Chinese city.

These awards are acknowledgement of our hard work and commitment and are great encouragement to continue delivering outstanding dining experiences to our guests in Greater China and across the world.
