Miramar Group's Restaurants Win Numerous Awards

The awards garnered by Miramar Group's restaurants over the years are testimony to its commitment and passion for achieving excellence across its outlets. Stepping into 2012, the Group's long-standing best-loved restaurants and new additions have already been receiving accolades which speak volumes about its commitment towards delivering only exceptional dining experiences.

The French Window which re-interprets French classics with a contemporary, artistic twist has just been given the Best-ever Dining Award 2012 by Weekend Weekly. Both Hide-Chan, which offers authentic Fukuoka-style ramen and Saboten Japanese Cutlet, the first Hong Kong outlet of renowned Tonkatsu chain in Japan are also among the 601 restaurants receiving the Best-ever Dining Awards 2012 from Weekend Weekly.

Renowned for classic Cantonese and authentic Sichuan cuisines, Tsui Hang Village and Yunyan Sichuan Restaurant have just been named U Favourite Guangdong Cuisine and U Favourite Other Chinese Cuisine in U Favourite Food Awards 2012. This goes to show that these two highly regarded restaurants are still firm favourites with diners.

Miramar Group is proud to receive such esteemed recognitions and looks to introduce more exciting dining experience in the near future.

About The French Window

The French Window offers a wonderful array of French classics, reinterpreted using the freshest ingredients and served with a contemporary artistic flair. The menu is a masterpiece of culinary art. It is named Top 500 Restaurants in Asia, The Miele Guide 2011/2012 and is recommended in the Hong Kong/ Macau Louis Vuitton City Guide 2012.

About Hide-Chan Ramen

The Fukuoka-style ramen Hide-Chan has taken Tokyo and New York City by storm. With the most consummate blend of thick tonkotsu stock and chewy ramen noodles made straight and thin to carry all the hearty soup to satisfy your cravings like no other. It was named Recommended Bib Gourmand Restaurant in Michelin Guide Hong Kong & Macau 2012.
